

Randhir Mishra

Randhir Mishra is a Fellow of IIM Bangalore. He joined the Fellow Programme in Management (FPM) with the PGP batch of 1993-'95 and completed his programme in 2001. He also completed a Master's in Business Economics from the UK while on a sabbatical from the FPM. He is a freelance consultant in the area of education and works with national and international universities on issues revolving around quality, impact, employability and effectiveness in education design and governance. His last corporate role was as the Chief of Academics for HCL TalentCare, an education enterprise of the HCL Group.

Randhir has been associated with IIMB in various capacities. Besides being a Fellow of IIMB, he has donned the roles of visiting faculty, founder of an Analytics enterprise incubated at IIMB's NSRCEL and Head of Office of International Affairs, besides being an active member of the Alumni Council.

Randhir is also a co-founder of a non-profit organization - Unnati, which is dedicated to transforming the life of underprivileged youth through vocational, professional and life skills programs.

He is based in Bangalore, and stays with his wife Pratima and daughter Manika.